4. Inter-se Seniority of the Officers. – The inter-se Seniority of the officers who are assigned the same year of allotment shall be in the following order and in each category the inter-se seniority shall be determined in the following manner: -

- (i) direct recruit officers shall be ranked inter-se in the order of merit as determined in accordance with rule 10 of the Indian Police Service (Probation) Rules, 1954;
- <sup>6</sup>(ii) Promotee officers shall be ranked inter-se in the order in which their names are arranged by the Commission for the purpose of appointment to the Service by promotion.

<sup>8</sup>4A. Seniority of officers appointed to the Service at the initial constitution of the cadre of Nagaland.- Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules in relation to the State of Nagaland the year of allotment and the seniority of officers appointed to the service at the time of the initial constitution of the State Cadre shall be determined by the Central Government in the following manner, namely: -

The year of allotment and seniority shall be determined ad-hoc, in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission and the State Government, after taking into account the length of Service and the responsibilities of posts held by the officer as reflected in pay or nature of duties, or in both:

Provided that the year of allotment of an officer so arrived at shall be limited to the year to which his immediate senior in the Nagaland State Police Service, who is selected to the Indian Police Service Cadre of Nagaland, at its initial constitution has been allotted".

5. Gradation List: - There shall be prepared every year for each State Cadre and Joint Cadre a gradation List consisting of the names of all officers borne on that Cadre arranged in order of seniority.

6. Fixation of the seniority of officers transferred to another Cadre: - 6(1) If a direct recruit officer is transferred from one cadre to another in public interest, his year of allotment shall remain unchanged and his inter-se position among the direct recruits having the same year of allotment in the cadre to which he is transferred shall remain the same as determined in accordance with rule 10 of the Indian Police Service (Probation) Rules, 1954.

6(2) If a promotee officer is transferred from one cadre to another in public interest, his year of allotment shall remain unchanged and he shall be ranked inter-se with promotee officers having the same year of allotment in the cadre to which he is transferred with reference to the date on the basis of which he was assigned the year of allotment under these rules.
