Job Opening number: DPKO/SEC1801/P-5/07

United Nations Core Values: Integrity, Professionalism, Respect for Diversity

Organizational Setting and Reporting:
This position is located in the Mission Management and Support Section of the Police Division in the Office of Rule of Law and Security Institutions, Department of Peacekeeping Operations. The incumbent reports directly to the Police Adviser through the Principle Officer, as appropriate.

The overall objectives of the Police Division are to effectively direct police components in peacekeeping operations and special political missions; to strengthen the strategic direction, planning, and management of police components in peacekeeping operations; and, to work towards a shared understanding among all stakeholders on the future direction of police peacekeeping. Additional information available in http://www.un.org/en/peacekeeping/sites/police/division.shtml

Responsibilities:
Within delegated authority, the Chief of Mission Management and Support Section will be responsible for the following duties:

- Providing oversight, guidance and support to the staff of the Section and to the senior leadership of police operations on a wide range of strategic policing activities, including those related to mandate implementation, local police institutional development and capacity enhancement, and operational and administrative issues related to police operations.

- Act as the communication link between the Office of the Police Adviser and the Section and provides advice to the Police Adviser and Deputy Police Adviser on important issues.

- Actively participates in and provides direct oversight in preparing plans to establish and support new and existing operations, and assists in developing profiles based on the identified needs of police components.

- Supervise the timely production of police specific documents and conducts visits to the police components operations of peacekeeping operations for fact-finding and technical assessment missions.

- Supervise the activities of the mission management and support officers in regards to the maintenance of continuous liaison with field missions and Permanent Missions of police contributing countries, including those issues related to daily operations.

- Ensure that incoming and outgoing senior police field staff receive appropriate in and out briefings and are provided with follow-up support, if required.

- Ensure the adherence of police components to their mandated tasks; advises and guides police components in their activities; evaluates and reviews components' progress; and, undertakes all other tasks to ensure the proper administration and documentation of operational-related requirements of the police components in the field.

- Provide advice to the senior staff of the Police Division (including Standing Police Capacity), Office of Operations, Integrated Operational Teams, Office of the Military Adviser, OROLSI, DPKO, and Department of Field Support (DFS) on the police aspects of peacekeeping operations.

- Conduct representational activities at workshops and seminars and develops partnerships within the UN system, research institutes, Member States, and Regional Organisations.

- Responsible for supervising and managing staff of the Section and therefore evaluates staff performance through use of the UN performance appraisals system in accordance with established criteria.

Competencies:
Proﬁciency in the use of computer-aided systems to monitor and control the performance of UN peacekeeping operations.

Planning and Organizing: Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work; foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary and uses time efﬁciently.

Accountability: Takes ownership of all responsibilities and honours commitments; delivers outputs within prescribed time, cost and quality standards; operates in compliance with organizational regulations and rules; supports subordinates, provides oversight and takes responsibility of delegated assignments; takes personal responsibility for his/her own shortcomings and those of the work unit, where applicable.

Leadership: Serves as a role model that other people want to follow; empowers others to translate vision into results; is proactive in developing strategies to accomplish objectives; establishes and maintains relationships with a broad range of people to understand needs and gain support; anticipates and resolves conﬂicts by pursuing mutually agreeable solutions; drives for change and improvements; does not accept the status quo; shows the courage to take unpopular stands. Provides leadership and takes responsibility for incorporating gender perspectives and ensuring the equal participation of women and men in all areas of work; demonstrates knowledge of strategies and commitment to the goal of gender balance in staff.

Vision: Identifies strategic issues, opportunities and risks; clearly communicates links between the Organization’s strategy and the work unit’s goals; generates and communicates broad and compelling organizational direction, inspiring others to pursue that same direction and conveys enthusiasm about future possibilities.

Qualiﬁcation:
Education: Advanced university degree (Master’s Degree or Equivalent) in the ﬁeld of Police Science, Criminal Justice, Law Enforcement, Law, or a related area is required. Graduation from a certiﬁed police academy or similar law enforcement training institution is also required. A ﬁrst level university degree in combination with relevant academic qualiﬁcations and qualifying experience may be accepted in lieu of the advanced university degree.

Experience: Minimum of 10 years of progressively responsible experience in an active national police service with a current rank of at least Chief Superintendent, Commissioner or equivalent military rank of Colonel or above at senior administrative and strategic operational levels. Experience in a peacekeeping operation, UNHQ, or similar international organization is desirable. UN policing experience in a peacekeeping operation dealing with administrative and operational issues related to the day-to-day functioning of the police component is desirable. Qualifying years of experience are calculated following the graduation from the police academy or similar law enforcement training institution.

Language: English and French are the working languages of the United Nations Secretariat. For this post advertised, ﬂuency in English (both oral and written) is required. Knowledge of an additional ofﬁcial UN languages, preferably French, is desirable.

Assessment Method:
Evaluation of qualiﬁed candidates may include an assessment exercise which may be followed by a competency-based interview.

Special Notice:
Circulation of this Job Opening is limited to Member States. Only serving police ofﬁcers who have received authorization by their National Authorities to apply for this Job Opening will be considered. Appointments are limited to service on posts reserved for active police ofﬁcers who serve on secondment ﬁnanced by the support account of peacekeeping operations.

- Standardizes recruitment and selection procedures through the development of competency-based profiles; develops and participates in recruitment strategies to meet identified shortfalls, including recruitment and outreach exercises and selection assistance visits to generate a pool of competent candidates, especially thematic experts, i.e. experts in forensics, organized crime, electoral-related activities, criminal investigation, crime prevention, crowd control management, etc.;

- Intensifies engagement with francophone organizations and countries; ensures compliance with UN recruitment policies and guidelines, including gender balance initiatives; projects and monitors rotation plans of police personnel; maintains and interprets statistical data on police personnel serving in field missions and contributions by Police Contributing Countries.

- Develops extension and rotation strategies to meet the demand for police personnel and formed units in the field; establishes staggered police rotation plans in coordination with field missions and Member States to ensure continuity and stable strength in order to mitigate the potential adverse impact on mission mandate implementation and security and ensures strict adherence to established performance appraisal policies for any extension requests.

- Coordinates and ensures the issuance of medical clearances by the UN Medical Services Division for police officers prior to their deployment to field missions; and, monitors and updates the medical tracking mechanism for police personnel.

- Responsible for managing and participating in Selection Assistance and Assessment Teams (SAAT) and the Formed Police Unit Assistance Teams (FPAT); arranging and participating in pre-deployment visits to Member States.

Competencies:

Professionalism: Ability to identify issues, formulate opinions, present conclusions and offer recommendations. Ability to apply UN HR rules, regulations, policies and guidelines in work situations and prepare reports or rational with respect to key administrative decisions. Motivated by professional rather than personal concerns; shows persistence when faced with difficult problems or challenges; remains calm in stressful situations; is conscientious and efficient in meeting commitments, observing deadlines and achieving results. Takes responsibility for incorporating gender perspectives and ensuring the equal participation of women and men in all areas of work.

Planning and Organizing: Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work; foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary; uses time efficiently.

Teamwork: Works collaboratively with colleagues to achieve organizational goals; solicits input by genuinely valuing others’ ideas and expertise; is willing to learn from others; places team agenda before personal agenda; supports and acts in accordance with final group decision, even when such decisions may not entirely reflect own position; shares credit for team accomplishments and accepts joint responsibility for team shortcomings.

Qualification:

Education: Advanced university degree (Master’s degree or equivalent) in law, criminal justice, human resources management, police administration, business or public administration, social sciences, education or related area. Graduation from a certified police academy or similar law enforcement training institution is required. A first level university degree in combination with relevant academic qualifications and qualifying experience may be accepted in lieu of the advanced university degree.

Experience: A minimum of seven years of progressively responsible experience in active national police service with a rank of Superintendent or Lt. Colonel, other service equivalent or higher rank, including three years of practical experience in police personnel administration and recruitment is required. Qualifying years of experience are calculated following the graduation from the national police academy or similar law enforcement institution.
