

(i) Training of Foreign Police Officers in India:-

Training Foreign Police Personnel of friendly developing countries such as Nepal, Bhutan, Maldives, Palestine, Afghanistan, Mauritius, Sri Lanka, Ethiopia, Uganda, Malaysia, Indonesia, Mongolia, Vietnam and Thailand etc. is being provided at various Police Training Institutions in the country. The Ministry of External Affairs is the nodal agency for arranging such training in India. The organization of training in the concerned training institutions of the Centre Police Forces/Organizations/State Police is coordinated by the BPR&D.