MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

D.O.No.26012/1/2011-IPS-II

27th June, 2012

Dear Sir,

Please refer to this Ministry's earlier letters regarding submission of Annual Immovable Property Returns by AIS officers for the year 2011 (as on 01.01.2012) for placing in the public domain.

2. It has been specifically mentioned in the earlier letters on the subject that the IPS officers who have not submitted IPRs in time, would be denied vigilance clearance and will not be considered for promotion and empanelment for senior level posts in Government of India.

3. The IPRs for the year 2011 (as on 01.01.2012) received from the IPS officers are posted in the website of MHA. The names of the IPS officers whose APRs are yet to be received by the Ministry of Home Affairs, GoI for the year 2011, cadre-wise, have been posted in the website of this Ministry (http://mha.nic.in/pend_acrs.htm). A list is enclosed.

4. The position regarding non-submission of IPRs for the year 2011 by IPS officers was reviewed by the Ministry in the light of instructions issued by DoP&T and in accordance with AIS (Conduct) Rules, 1968. In order to avoid delay in receipt of IPRs, the following be complied with:-

(a) The IPS officers who have not submitted the Property Returns for the year 2011 be advised to submit the same immediately.

(b) IPS officers who have not submitted their IPRs for the year 2011 will be denied vigilance clearance for promotion, empanelment, other nominations for training, awards etc.

(c) The PARs for 2011 duly completed be forwarded to this Ministry by 15.07.2012.

5. The above position may please be brought to the notice of all officers concerned for guidance and strict compliance.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(K. K. MITTAL)
